To you, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton and Mr. Ray Hamilton, we dedicate the D.H.S. DEL-ANO.

Devoting many years of your lives to Delano High students, you have gained the respect and admiration of each student with whom you have had contact. Frequently acting as chaperones at social affairs and always happily participating in school projects, you have become well-known as gracious good sports.

Mrs. Hamilton, your warm personality and perfect disposition have always been inspirations to your devoted pupils. As head of the English department, you have charmingly given your time and help to faculty members and students.

Along with an enviable list of community accomplishments, Mr. Hamilton, you have achieved honors as a patient home builder, a fine photographer, and a good friend. You have skillfully handled your job as head of the industrial arts department, along with earning an unsurpassed reputation as a man of integrity and sincerity.

We doff our sailor caps to you, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton. We have never known a nicer couple!

We Dedicate Our Log

In Memoriam

Mr. Laurence E. Abbey

Flags flying at half-mast on the Delano High campus March 3 carried to the students the message of the death of their veteran teacher, Mr. Laurence E. Abbey.

An industrial arts teacher for 32 years following four years spent as a school mechanic, Mr. Abbey had served the school longer than anyone else. After founding the transportation and bus maintenance department, Mr. Abbey acted as its supervisor until last year, safely transporting thousands of students countless miles without a serious accident.

Mr. Abbey was widely admired and greatly respected for his many community and school services. His reputation for reliability, conscientiousness, devotion to duty, and kindness has become legendary in Delano.

A veteran of World War I and an active leader in the American Legion, Mr. Abbey exemplified the qualities of loyal patriotism and dedicated citizenship.

Delano misses him.

Typical DHS Day Lived by Senior Dick

Dick Grogan, chosen the typical boy seniors would most like to follow through a day, leads an active life. He rushes to school every morning, getting there JUST IN TIME to rack his brain in the first three classes.

Finally, relief — lunch! Time to eat lunch and talk to the crowd. Then off again to finish up the day. After school — homework and his part time job.

Dinner with his family, TV, and a date with best girl Ann pass the evenings for fast-moving Dick. With a few variations that's a typical day for just about any DHS sailor — active, fun, exhausting!

Commanders

Dr. Bert C. Corona, Delano High School superintendent, strides purposefully across campus.

As the most important single event of the year, the administration put before Delano area voters a mammoth $1,750,000 bond issue. Passed by a nearly 3-1 margin, the bond provides for new buildings including music, science, industrial arts, homemaking, math classrooms, a boys' gym, and an administration building, and the improvement and relocation of existing buildings.

Working steadily through a vital year of elections, new building plans, and regular school business, Delano High's Board of Trustees, composed of Mr. Meryl Anderson, president, and Mr. J. D. Andreas, Mr. Lido Sandrini, Mr. Glen Schlitz, and Mr. Norman Simeral, has served the students well.

Under the excellent steering of Dr. Bert C. Corona, superintendent, everyone at Delano High has been successfully working toward placing DHS among the top-notch schools in California.

Mr. Joseph Costerella, assistant principal, lends aid to the large commanding job. Mr. Costerella also takes pride in advising the students in charge of planning for all school functions.

With the lengthy title of Director of Attendance and Child Welfare, and Athletic Director, Mr. Ray Frederick, whom friendly students address simply as "Coach," now marks 26 years of Delano High service.

Giving aid to seniors in the selection of careers and directing test programs are among the varied duties performed by Miss Dorothy Morey, director of guidance and testing.

Below, members of the Delano High School Board of Trustees are Mr. J. D. Andreas, Mr. Norman Simeral, Mr. Meryl E. Anderson, Mr. Glen Schlitz, and Mr. Lido Sandrini. These important men met bi-weekly throughout the year.

Navigators Plan Varied

Right, members of the second period Senior Problems classes visit the Delano Justice Court as part of their study of the Justice Department.

Courses

Newly added to the social studies department this year was a lecture program for Senior Problems classes. Mr. Wilfred Lee, Mr. James Kelley, and Mr. Don Hickock alternated as lecturers during the course. Other subjects covered in this large department were World History, Sophomore Requirements, which included Driver Training, U.S. History, Civics, and Senior Problems.

Mr. Alfred Root, Mr. Edward DeFraga, Mr. Ervin Robertson, Mr. Don Tavolacci, and Mr. Francis Cristafano instructed math courses such as Algebra I and II, General Math, Plane Geometry, and Trigonometry.

Students studying in the business department received training in Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typing I and II, Office Practice, Business English, Record Keeping, Salesmanship, Personal Typing, Everyday Business, and Business Law. The Salesmanship classes, under the direction of Mr. William Spaulding, created beautiful exhibits in the display cases in the Library and Library Annex Buildings throughout the year.

Mrs. Vera Abbey and Mrs. Noma Collins capably directed tomorrow's homemakers in the sewing, cooking, and home management phases of the home economics department program. The entire department cooperated to make toys and decorations during the Christmas season.

Top, business teachers Mr. Ralph Brooding, Miss Anne Pezzuti, Mr. William Spaulding, Miss Narcissa Danner, Mr. John Lewis, Miss Carol Benton, and Mr. Eric Stone are pictured. Above, Miss Benton's class types toward skill and speed.

Members of the English department include, standing, Mr. Marshall Coursen, Mr. Frank Lambirth, Mr. Bruce Harvey, Mr. Mac Hull. Seated are Miss Mary Salber, Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton, and Mrs. Mary Goldman.

Profs Steer Liberal Arts

All Delano High students are required to take at least two years of English. College Preparatory students are urged to include third and fourth year English in their schedules.

Varied subject matter is offered in this department. Courses are taught in journalism, public speaking, dramatics, and Business English, along with the four year-long courses in regular English.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hamilton capably leads the department. Other English teachers include Miss Mary Salber, Mrs. Mary Goldman, Mr. Marshall Coursen, Mr. Frank Lambirth, Mr. Bruce Harvey, and Mr. Mac Hull.

Several special events highlighted the year for English students. Mr. Hull's English IV classes enjoyed a lecture on Shakespeare given by Dr. Melvin Chernof of Bakersfield College. Ten outstanding students from the two senior English classes participated in the first annual Shakespeare Contest, while Mr. Wilson's journalism classes visited a number of Kern County newspaper plants. The entire department collaborated to produce a special spring assembly program.

Because of the many public appearances of music department groups, these well-trained students form one of the school's closest ties with the Community. Head of the department, Mr. Chester Hayden, is famous for the fine vocal groups, Girls' Glee, Mixed Glee, and Choir, he presents.

Although kept busy with his music appreciation class and the Delano High Orchestra, Mr. Jack Ritchey has also found time to initiate an orchestra program in Delano elementary schools. The 100 string players enrolled are expected to augment the small high school orchestra in the future. New to Delano this year, Mr. Gary Kenyon, director of bands, has introduced a faster cadence than previously used by the band, and at football games, a lighted band.

Ceramics, leather and metal working, crafts, and art for both beginning and advanced students are taught in the art department by Miss Claire Hoster and Mr. Richard Cottrell.

Courses in Spanish, Latin, French, and German are offered in the foreign language department, headed by Mr. Ed Goldman. Also teaching language classes are Mr. Anthony LoRe, Mr. Joseph Pokorny, and Mr. Joseph Sullivan.

At the right are foreign language teachers Mr. Edward Goldman, Mr. Anthony LoRe, Mr. Joseph Pokorny, Mr. Joseph Sullivan.

Teachers in the agriculture department are Mr. Edwin Maxon and Mr. Kermit Adams. Not shown is Mr. Eugene Brassfield.

Ag students have, among their many courses, a lesson in tree pruning. Alfred and Ronnie participate above.

Hands' Needs

Biology, Physics, General Science, California Natural History, and Chemistry are among classes offered by the science department, headed by Mr. Frank Dyar, chemistry and physics teacher. Other science classes are instructed by Mr. Ed Butts, Mr. Nathan Johnson, Mr. Gordon Lillis, and Mr. Robert Selent.

A very active and important agriculture department is headed by Mr. Edwin Maxson. This division offers boys engaged in agriculture a more thorough understanding of the entire field. Mr. Kermit Adams and Mr. Eugene Brassfield also teach ag classes.

Under the management of physical education department heads, Mrs. Carolyn Sorensen and Mr. Ralph Allen, this division is skillfully organized. A wide variety of games — tennis, volleyball, baseball, swimming, football, and hockey — are offered to boys and girls enrolled in the required physical education classes. Other full-time physical education teachers are Miss Barbara Goemer, Miss Ruby Olsen, and Mr. Waldo Stahl.

Out in the big, nearly new shop building classes are taught in auto and wood shop, other industrial arts, and graphic arts, while the old shop building is still used for metal shop classes. Mr. Ray Hamilton heads the industrial arts department.

Ship Has Many Departments,

Left, members of City League basketball teams jump for ball in regular Tuesday night game.

It is no idle boast that the high school campus is the center of community activity. Classrooms are in use every week night for adult education classes in 25 such varied subjects as auto shop, crafts, vocal music, folk dancing, shorthand, driver training, English, and foreign languages. In the gym city-league basketball games are held, along with regular night school physical education classes. The big high school auditorium is used for nearly all community shows, such as the Harvest Holidays Queen Show, and the Music Memorial and Mother-singers' Concerts.

Delano High's well stocked library is used by hundreds of students daily. Efficiently carrying out his job as head librarian, Mr. John Geyer supervises the re-organized library facilities, assisted by Mrs. Marshall Coursen. New equipment was purchased this year, enabling librarians to have more control of books.

The school library now holds 5,100 books of fiction and non-fiction and a variety of magazines, newspapers, and pamphlets.

Many Hands

Above, office secretaries and bookkeepers include, standing, Felix, Coursen, Stonesifer, Boone. Seated are Proctor, Peebles, Bennet, and Kitchen.

Above, Mr. Ed Patterson, business manager, sees that school financial business runs smoothly.

Delano High's business manager, Mr. Ed Patterson, operates efficiently on a demanding schedule. Mr. Patterson supervises all school purchases, requisitions, and budgets.

Although carrying out a full-time schedule of regular office work, the competent staffs of the attendance, bookkeeping, and counseling offices always find time to help students with mimeographing, special bulletins, and questions. They also handle attendance records, mail, switchboard, and payroll work.

For the first time this year, Delano High rates a full-time registered nurse. Cheerful Mrs. Harriet Hennessee gives her time to ailing students. By maintaining a complete record of each student's past health, Mrs. Hennessee hopes to deal with any health problems arising.

Ready to help troubled students is Mr. Robert Pennington, school psychologist. Mr. Pennington is on deck each Thursday in the attendance office.

Cafeteria employees include, standing, Bramblott, Moudy, Riley, Fielder, Kerons; seated King, Richards, Slankard, and Shaffer.

Delano High's 20 skilled and efficient cafeteria workers, under the supervision of Mrs. Bertha Slankard, provide well balanced and delicious meals for some 700 students in the cafeteria each day. An additional 500 students buy lunches at the handy outside snack bar.

In three shifts students crowd into long lines for plate and sack lunches. Christmas and Thanksgiving bring special fare and especially long lines. This problem is expected to be lessened next year with the completion of a new cafeteria.

Working full-time, eleven ladies assist Mrs. Slankard in the planning and preparation of meals. Ten other workers help with noon-time serving.

In addition to regular noon meals, the cafeteria staff serves many hundreds at special banquets and luncheons.

Everyone rushes and crushes to enjoy the delicious food served daily to 700 hungry students in the cafeteria. Note the contented smiles!

Crew Keeps DHS Shipshape

Right, members of the efficient grounds and maintenance crew are back, Dix, McCowan, Kirkpatrick, McCartney, Mahon; seated, Penrod, Eoff, Neal.

A small army of maintenance men, custodians, grounds men, bus drivers, and laundrymen is needed to keep Delano High running neatly and smoothly. Vital to the campus, the men are also friendly and cheerful. Many students look forward each day to their friendly contacts with the efficient crew.

On the shoulders of Mr. Lyle Penrod, a school employee for some 25 years, rests the responsibility of maintaining the 50-acre campus. Working under Mr. Penrod, men from his department execute the many complicated lighting and building plans given to them for the school Christmas program, as well as smoothing many of the daily emergencies in the lives of the 1600 people connected with DHS.

Each day's 3:45 bus bell brings approximately half of Delano High's 1400 students to the fleet of big yellow buses. Carrying students to and from their homes in Kern and Tulare Counties, the 16 buses travel a total of 900 miles each day. The longest daily run for a bus is 58 miles; the shortest, 26 miles.

In addition to daily runs, the transportation system adds thousands of miles to the total each year by providing transportation for clubs, classes, choirs, and teams.

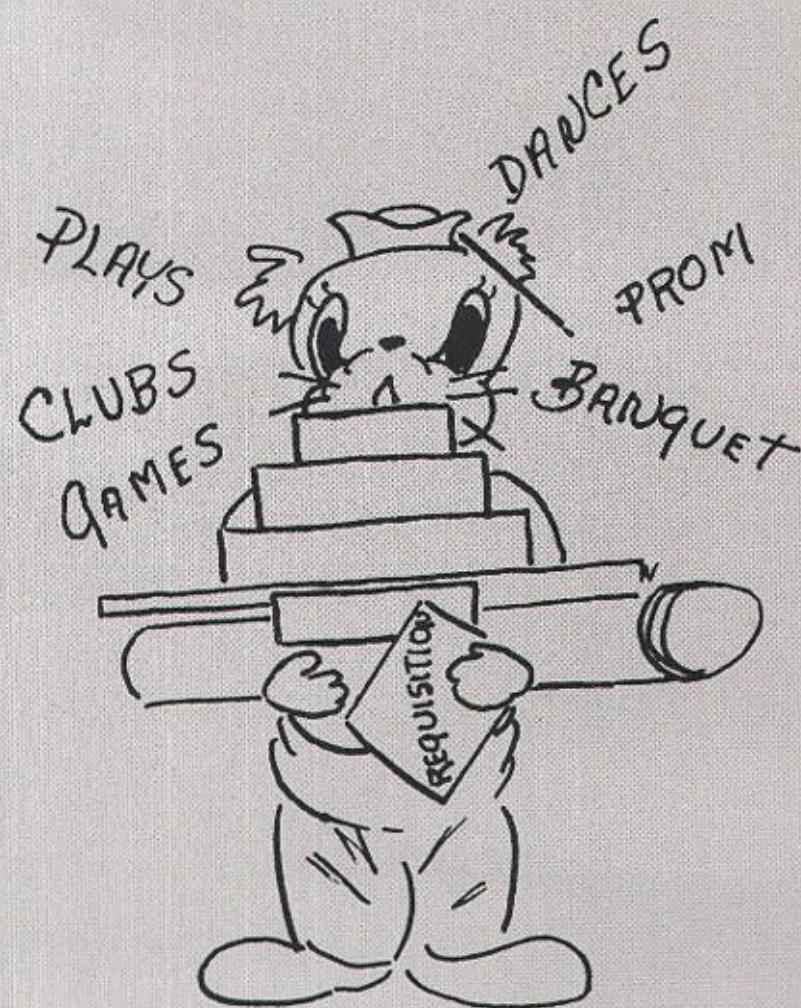

In the bus garage three full-time employees keep the buses—and their much-sought-after radios—in perfect working condition.

ACTIVITIES

Activities End

A busy spring climaxed the 1956-57 school year. Winning first prize in the DEL-ANO Review, of many fine acts, Freddie Mendoza brought down the house with his rendition of "Billy's Blues."

Miss Mary Salber's lucky English III classes visited the Los Angeles Times, Huntington Library, and a performance of My Fair Lady on their June 1 trip to Los Angeles.

Dreamy strains of music come to mind in remembering the Junior-Senior Prom held under the sea in "Neptune's Court." The traditional formal was held for the first time off campus and in the National Guard Armory on May 18.

May 2 was the date of the PTA Barbeque and Delano High Open House, termed by all a great success.

The seniors were hosted by the juniors on a "Treasure Island" at the Junior-Senior Banquet April 11.

Four years of high school were climaxed for the Class of '57 at the graduation ceremonies held on June 7.

Events Launch Year

With a busy and varied schedule of dances, assemblies, parades, contests, and conferences Delano High guys and gals managed to keep well entertained throughout the 1957-58 school year.

School was officially opened on September 5, but September 4 was set aside as Freshman Day, giving the frightened frosh a day of peace and a chance to become acquainted with the campus and teachers.

Pep assemblies were held often to promote school and team spirit for football and basketball games. Donna Silva, head yell leader, planned and arranged for the many skits and stunts performed.

A high point of the year for Delano area residents was the annual Harvest Holidays. Penny Post was chosen queen, while Judy Cozart and Janette Day were named princesses. All three girls are DHS seniors.

Co-sponsored by the Delano Lions Club and the Student Affairs Commission, the annual Halloween Dance was well attended by students and guests.

Individual and group football pictures taken by Mr. Nick Dailey were sold by DEL-ANO staff members to interested players and students.

Homecoming Festivities

Again a completely successful event, Delano High's Second Annual Homecoming was enjoyed by all participating.

Reigning as queen over the festivities was Janette Day, senior. Homecoming princesses were Donna Silva, Carol Bradley, Linda Main, Sybil Baker, Sandra Cabrera, and Brenda Bird.

For the first time this year special names were designated for each day of the Homecoming week. Monday, November 4, carried the theme of "Monday Mourning;" Tuesday, "Stop North High Day;" Wednesday, "Go Delano Day," while Thursday was school color day. Each day patriotic students wore the appropriate colors.

Highlighting Thursday's festivities was the Homecoming Parade of decorated cars. The Del-Ano staff carried away sweepstakes prize with their entry of a decorated boat exhibiting the yearbook theme, "Ahoy, '58," while the Bible Club, Spanish Club, and Legion Medal Club each won runners-up prizes. Following the parade a pep rally was held in City Park.

Climaxing the Homecoming celebration, the football game, won by North High Stars, 21-18, was both exciting and heart-breaking for Delano fans. Halftime activities were brightened by the crowning of the queen and her court by football captains. Concluding Homecoming week, the junior class sponsored an after game dance.

Top, sweepstakes prize winner in the Homecoming Car Parade was the DEL-ANO boat, showing off the theme "Ahoy '58."

North High edged Delano 21-18 in a heartbreaker.

Programs, Parties, Trips

Sponsor Yarbrough and Mobile Gas Economy Run winners Hall, Gibson, and Johnes sport trophies following December 7 meet.

Continuing the active pace begun in the fall, DHS students actively participated in many events.

Sponsored by Mobile Gas and the McFarland Lion's Club, the first student economy run for this area was held December 7. DHS winners included Leonard Hall, John Gibson, and Barbara Johnes. MacFarland High copped the team award.

The music department presented a new type Christmas program, "A Christmas Party," to students and community in December.

Traveling to Long Beach in January, the DEL-ANO staff enjoyed a one-day naval cruise on the heavy cruiser USS COLUMBUS.

The Record Club presented the first annual dancing contest for "Kool Kats" in January. Winners included Lummus Green, William Richards, Donna Dawson, and Jerry Bryant.

Highlighted by outstanding decorations, the Christmas formal was held on December 21. Choosing the theme, "Candy Cane Lane," the Student Affairs Commission sponsored the holiday affair.

Members of "Christmas Party" cast whoop it up during "Jingle Bells" number.

Effective tableaux added beauty and dignity to annual Christmas program.

Spring Caper at Happy, Fast Pace

Student Association members and advisers enjoy dinner and social hour at February get-together.

Future freshmen look pretty bewildered as they are guided around the campus by CSF members on eighth-grade visiting days.

The coming of spring quickened the DHS pace, as a dinner given for all student association council members set sail on the season. The event gave those attending a chance to meet each other and discuss student association problems.

An all-clubs assembly was held for clubs wishing to present skits and tell about club activities. Speech Club, Rally Club, Harlem Club, and Boys' Varsity D Society participated. A great success was the noon recreational program which divided all students into six teams to participate in noon activities.

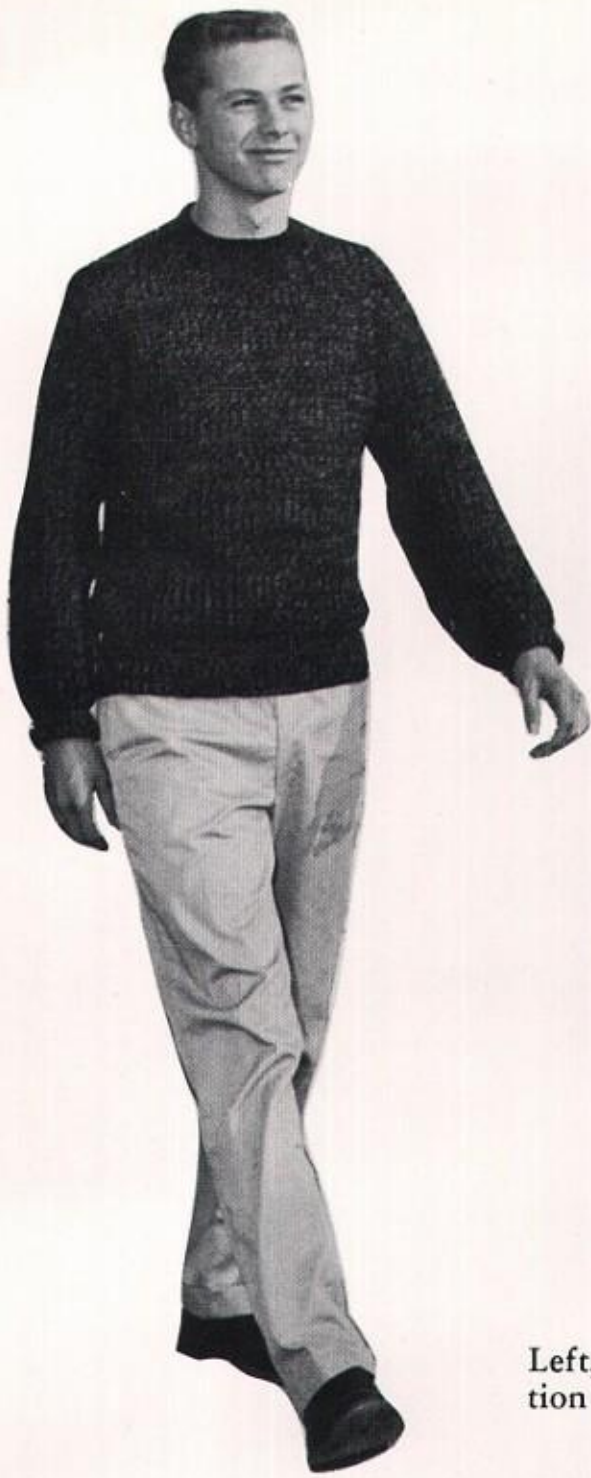

Another "first" was marked this year as the separate junior and senior plays were discontinued and two all-school plays were presented. The first, Blue Hotel, featured an all-boy cast, while the cast of Cool Cats Forever was all-girl. Both were presented in May under the direction of Mr. Marshall Coursen.

CSF members guided future freshmen around the campus on four separate days as the eighth-graders received extensive orientation. Termed a really FUN fun night was the social event sponsored jointly by the Girls' Block D, Boys' Block D, and Rally Clubs in March.

Directly below, everyone enjoyed volleyball at all-school fun night. Bottom, Bank of America cup winners were Mike Schlitz, math and science; Jane Kubota, fine arts; and Jill Taggart, liberal arts.

All students at Delano High are members of the Student Association, headed by the Student Association Executive Council.

This year's Association was led by President Bruce Bird. Deanna Honbo and Dennis Scott were elected girls' and boys' vice-presidents, while Jill Taggert served as secretary.

Members of the Executive Council began the busy 1957-58 school year 'way back last August, as Bruce, Deanna, Dennis, Jill, Donna Silva, head cheerleader; Sue Massey, Publicity Commissioner; Louie Lucas, Finance Commissioner; Jane Kubota, Commissioner of School History; La Quita Phillips, Constitution and By-Laws Commissioner, Rachel Reyes, and Marion Rose attend a leadership conference at Camp Condor.

The Executive Council continued the year with regular weekly meetings at which the members planned the agenda for Student Association meetings, acted on bills put before them, and acted as a nucleus for all school activities.

La Quita Phillips served as Constitution and By-Laws Commissioner.

The Student Affairs Commission, headed by Boys' Vice-president Dennis Scott, became one of the most active of the commissions this year as it co-sponsored the Halloween Dance with the Lion's Club and took complete charge of the Christmas formal. Diane Evans and Beverley Bertrand acted as chairmen for the yuletide affair. Planning and scheduling noon movies and all assemblies, Student Affairs Commission members kept busy with duties throughout the year. The group's adviser was Mr. James Kelley.

Historian Commissioner Jane Kubota and her assistants kept an accurate record of all school events and activities. As the year's biggest project, they planned and published the first student handbook last summer, and they are now engaged in the publication of a second.

Student Association standing committee chairmen, Dolores Forquera, Student Activities; Jimmie Powell, Rules; Beverley Bertrand, Ways and Means; Penny Post, Student Welfare; and Mike Schlitz, Appropriations performed carefully and competently the many duties assigned to them.

While using the Student Association meeting room and office for all official business, students also found it a handy gathering place to learn the latest school news from the bulletins, calendars, and schedules posted there.

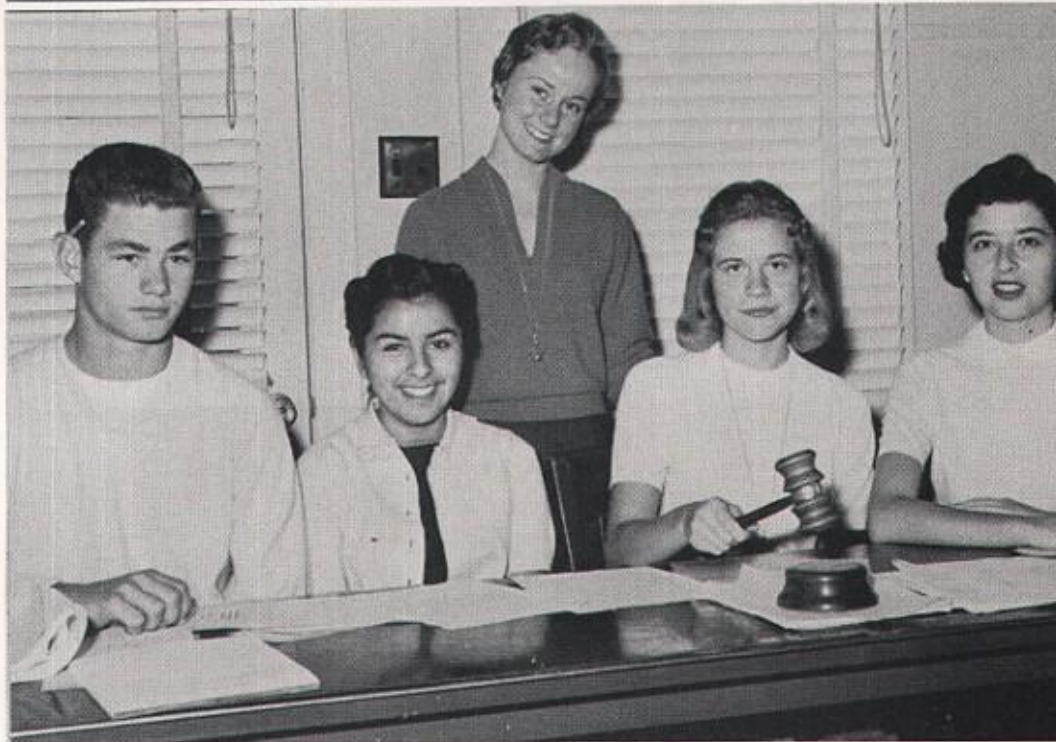

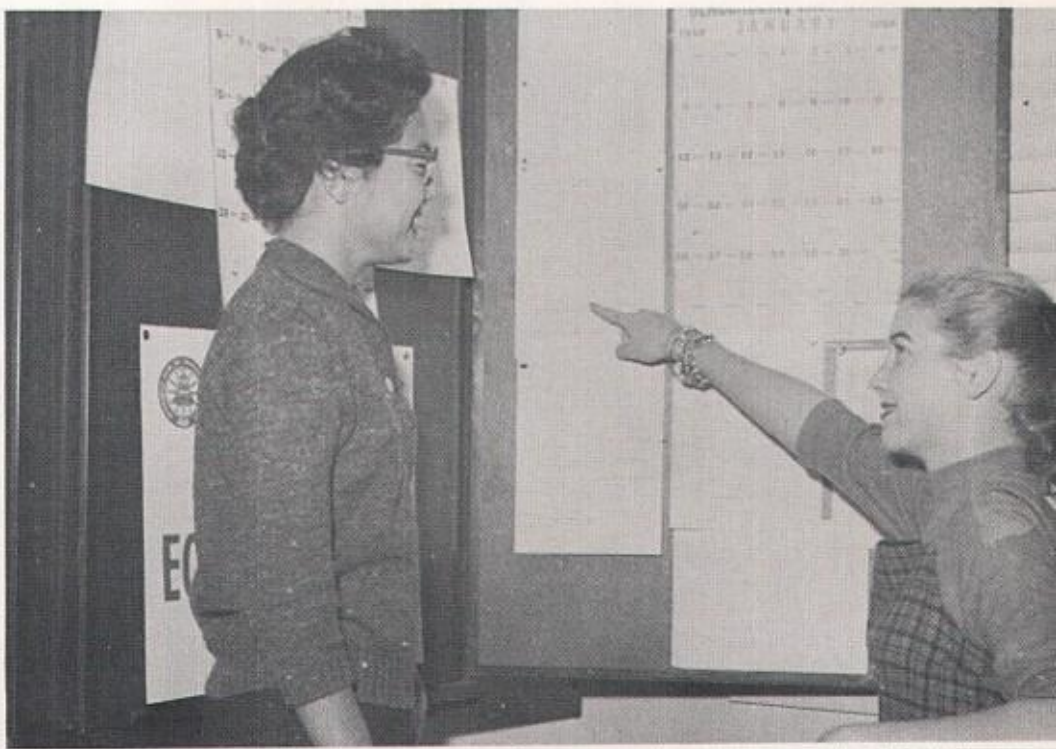

Deanna Honbo headed this year's Club Council composed of presidents of all campus clubs. This group co-ordinated all club activities for the year, including schedules for after-game dances, noon-movies, and club meeting.

Acting as head of the group, Deanna helped clubs write constitutions, after which they were given charters. Members of the Club Council made plans for the Homecoming Car Parade and chose plots of the new quad to be landscaped.

Many Functions

As an aid to communication among students, representatives are chosen from each homeroom to serve on the Student Association Council. Elected on a semester basis, these students attend all Student Association meetings and report on them to their classes.

With a tremendously crowded slate of work, conferences meetings, and dinners, the busy Council meet as often as three times a week.

Newly formed this year, the Delano High Safety Council sponsored the first Mobile Gas Economy Run in this area, and worked to promote campus safety throughout the year. Acting as advisers for the group were Mr. J. D. Yarbrough and Mr. Robert Selent.

Concerning themselves with activities exclusive to their respective classes, the four class councils, with representatives from each homeroom, met often throughout the year to discuss and make plans for important class projects such as senior announcements, senior sweaters, junior rings, Senior Ditch Day, and all class parties.

Directly below, representative Juanita gives report at morning Student Association Council meeting. Bottom, senior class council meets to discuss Senior Ditch Day.

Weekly, Yearly

The 1957 DEL-ANO, " '57 Varieties," carried on the tradition of outstanding Delano High yearbooks as it earned a First Class rating from the Columbia Press Association.

Barbara Ruff, editor, and Judy Cozart, business manager, led the staff through a maze of contracts, copy, captions, themes, heads, and ads, as well as those ominous deadlines to produce the D.H.S. DEL-ANO. Other members of the editorial staff included Janette Day, Carol Bradley, Pat Wesson, Keith Newman, Rachel Reyes, Ronald Ladd, Glenn Wilson, Louise Dietz, Terry Guerber, Arlen Appleford, Tony Panero and Susan Stone.

The launching of the D.H.S. DEL-ANO was successfully accomplished at the Sales Assembly held October 4. Announcing the theme, "Ahoy, '58," the assembly also uncovered unexpected talents in student body members.

As the sales campaign ended November 7, Laurie Sands, junior, stood at the top of the salesman list, after selling 79 books.

Activities of the year will come to an exciting conclusion at the June Press Banquet, when the D.H.S. DEL-ANO begins her maiden voyage.

A soul-stirring rendition of "Tammy" by the Seven Tugboats highlighted the DEL-ANO Sales Assembly.

Jacobsen, Silva, Co-editors Beverly Burns and Susan Stone, Soares, Schlitz, Panero.

Publishing the LIVE WIRE every Friday instead of bi-weekly on Wednesday kept this year's LIVE WIRE staff members really on their toes. The size of the paper was cut slightly making it more manageable.

The LIVE WIRE presented a complete picture of school life along with various phases of community life under the direction of co-editors, Beverly Burns and Susan Stone. Other staff leaders include Donna Silva, business manager; Deanna Jacobsen, feature editor; Mike Schlitz, sports editor; Joan Soares, activities editor; and Barbara Johnes, bookkeeper. Mr. Maynard Wilson acted as adviser.

Besides the regular issues printed, the staff put out two special editions, Christmas and graduation. This year's papers were printed by the PRESS.

Members of the LIVE WIRE staff attended a press conference at Bakersfield Junior College in October, while other staff delegates journeyed to Seattle to represent Delano High at the Pacific Slope Press Clinic in February.

Beverly Burns and Magalene Garland acted as co-editors of football programs sold at each home game.

Mr. Frank Dyar, president, Miss Anne Pezzuti, Mrs. Noma Collins, and Mr. Dave Kelley led the local CTA chapter this year.

Teachers gather in faculty meeting room at noon for conversation, announcements and work.

Teachers, Parents Organize Too

Mr. Frank Dyar served as president of the local chapter of the California Teachers Association this year. Assisting Mr. Dyar were Mr. Dave Kelley, vice-president; Miss Anne Pezzuti, secretary; and Mrs. Noma Collins, treasurer.

As their major project of the year the Delano group sponsored on February 15 a three-county professional workshop to study personal and professional policy procedures.

Elected to represent the local CTA at the North Kern Central Section meeting was Mr. Wilfred Lee, while Mr. Carson Wilcox and Mr. Dyar represented Delano on the Kern Division Council, a higher organization than the CTA.

Besides their regular meetings the group held several social gatherings during the year.

Led by Mrs. Harry Goodel, the Parent-Teachers Association held regular monthly meetings and organized the annual PTA Barbecue.

The PTA and adult education classes jointly sponsored community meetings at which interested persons discussed local and teen-age problems.

Right, Mrs. Harry Goodel leads discussion at March PTA meeting. This association is organized to provide common meeting ground for discussion of problems of both parents and teachers.

An organization for outstanding high school journalists, the Alfred Harrell chapter of Quill and Scroll has as its primary purpose the encouragement and development of creative writing. New members Judy Cozart, Jim MacKenzie, Barbara Ruff, Mike Schlitz, and Joan Soares were initiated into the society at the home of Miss Mary Salber, adviser, on March 30.

Members of the Delano chapter of the California Scholarship Federation worked throughout the year to carry out their motto of "Scholarship for Service" as they conducted guided tours for various groups visiting the campus. Cris Parsons served as first semester president, while Marilyn Kubota took over the job for the second semester.

Once again sponsoring the campus March of Dimes drive the Legion Medal Club added $125 to the national fund. Dale Hampton acted as group president with Mr. L. E. Abbey as adviser.

Mr. Oran Palmer coached the active debate team and speech squad as they participated in meets and conferences throughout the Valley.

JSA, Rally Clubs

The JSA club had as this year's leaders Adviser Kruger, Cellini, Valentine, LaRosa, Mayor Appleford, Adviser Hickok.

With the triple goals of developing students' interest in government, promoting better citizenship, and providing practice in leadership, the Junior Statesmen of America enjoyed a year beneficial to all members.

Led by Arlen Appleford, mayor; Barbara La Rosa, speaker; Patty Celline, treasurer, the group began the year by sending delegates to the fall state convention in Sacramento and the fall regional convention in Livingston. Later in the year JSA members attended state and regional winter conventions and the spring regional convention in Delano.

Helping to provide members with a knowledge of city government and civic duties, a Junior Statesmen Government Day was proclaimed in March. Students took over the jobs of civic officials on all levels of civic service.

Celebrating a successful year, the Junior Statesmen held their annual JSA Banquet in May.

Spark Campus

Led by Janiece Ritchey, president; Judy Cozart, vice-president; and Barbara Ruff, secretary-treasurer, the Rally Club sponsored many successful activities.

Beginning the year, a colorful initiation was held in which 60 students became club members.

At football games Rally Club members cheered the teams with special yells and songs learned at meeting and by decorating the goal posts.

To honor and console exhausted football players of both teams, club members served refreshments to them in the cafeteria following all home games. This is the first year this project has been carried on promoting better spirit among schools.

Under the direction of Rally Club chairmen, the annual Sports Banquet, May Festival Dance, and Homecoming festivities were outstanding successes.

As the club's major social activity for the year, a snow party was organized, enjoyed greatly by the peppy members.

Miss Barbara Goemer served as Rally Club adviser.

Above, leaders of the lively Rally Club include Cozart, Ruff, Adviser Goemer, President Janiece Ritchey.

Athletic Groups Cover All Sports

Girls' Block D members, led by Joan Soares as president and Miss Ruby Olsen, adviser, enjoyed an active year of pot-luck dinners, initiations, and regular meetings. This organization is made up of girls who have earned Block D letters by participating in G.A.A. activities.

Merle Bassett served as president of the Boys' Block D, while the group had as advisers Mr. Gene Daniels and Mr. Ray Frederick. An honorary and social organization for athletic lettermen, the Boys' Block D Club shared a pot-luck dinner and fun night with the Girls' Block D, sponsored an after-game dance, and held two initiations.

Girls' Athletic Association members elected Betty Lou Flores as their president for the 1957-58 school year. With Mrs. Carolyn Sorenson as adviser, the G.A.A. officers planned a busy year for girls interested in athletics. Varied sports such as swimming, tennis, volleyball, badminton, soft ball, speed-away, hockey, and basketball made up the year's sports schedule.

The Harrier Club, composed of boys on the school cross-country teams, carried on fund raising projects to cover traveling and equipment expenses of the team. Tony Ramos acted as club president with Mr. Don Tivolacci as adviser.

Clubs Unify Nationalities

Led by President Alice Coria, Mexican Club members sponsored an after-game dance, a food booth at the April Open House, and several parties. The group also raised money to contribute to the Red Cross and Boy Scout fund drives. Mr. Francis Cristofano served as the club adviser.

Harlem Club members, headed by Lummus Green as president and Mr. Wesley Rumbolz and Mr. John Lewis, advisers, sponsored a Harlem Club Fun-Night, and after-game dance, and an all-school assembly. Money raised was put into a senior scholarship fund. Harlem Club members list as objectives encouraging cooperation among fellow students and training members for school leadership.

George Mariano led the newly formed Philipino Club through a well-planned schedule of activities. As the main project of the year, members sponsored a semi-formal dance held at the Delano Philipino Hall, while lesser events included an after-game dance and a club party. Open to all Delano High students of Philipino descent, members strive to include everyone with that status in the club membership. Mr. George Garibaldi assisted the group as club adviser.

Reorganized with the objectives of furthering interest in French culture, the French Club was directed by President Sugie Radovich and Adviser Mr. Ed Goldman. The successful club initiation and Mardi Gras Ball were organized with the co-operation of the other officers, members and students in the various French classes.

Composed of outstanding Latin students, the Latin Club operated with the goal of furthering students' interest in early Roman culture. As their main activity, the club members planned and presented a Latin playlet. Adviser for the group was Mr. Joseph Pokorny.

Scientific students earned praise for their preparation and launching of an experimental rocket. Most Science Club members also worked on extensive individual projects. Bill Wheaton acted as Science Club president while Mr. Frank Dyer and Mr. Gordon Lillis were advisers.

Make Headway

Spanish Club members, led by Vera Hill, president, met often to accomplish their objectives of increasing knowledge of the Spanish language and culture. The club also sponsored an after-game dance, an initiation for new members, and a noon movie.

The Future Business Leaders of America maintained a crowded schedule of activities. Pat Acquino, president, and Miss Anne Pezzuti and Miss Narcissa Danner, advisers, planned the formal initiation and conferences held by the group. Members were also in charge of the food concession at the first home basketball game.

California Scholarship Federation members, with President Cris Parsons and Advisers Mr. Frank Dyer and Mr. Ed DeFraga, were especially active this year. Members attended two district conferences, at East Bakersfield and Arvin High Schools. By acting as guides for visiting grammar school students on Eighth Grade Visiting Day, and businessmen on Business Education Day, CSF members achieved one of their goals, service to the school. The club held initiations for new members in December and March.

Clubs Sail

Bible Club members, led by Roger Waits as president, met regularly this year and carried on a full program with guest speakers and school activities. After winning first place for the prettiest car in the Homecoming Parade, the club members walked away with a five-dollar prize.

As one of the most worth-while clubs on the DHS campus, the Bible Club provided a place for students to meet and express their faith together. It also taught interested young people about Christianity. The group met often for Bible study.

Students interested in the teaching profession formed this year's Top Notch Teacher Club. With Madeline Downs as president, TNT members accomplished their objectives of informing students about teaching opportunities, furthering social relationships among students, and providing a fifty-dollar scholarship for a deserving senior member.

The TNT Club sponsored an after-game dance, noon movies, and listened to several speakers talk on the teaching profession. Bible Club leaders, Adviser Tavolacci, President Waits, DeFraga, Massey, Cagle, Adviser Segesvary. Right, FHA officers include, back row, Jakovich, Siemens, Hightower, Flores, Marshall, Lucich. Front row, Hays, Hennessee, President Nita Rice, Collins, Macchiaroli, and Adviser Collins.

President Nita Rice capably headed the Future Homemakers of America this year as they fulfilled their objectives of service to school and community and furthering interest in home economics. Installation ceremonies in the fall began the year's activities. Cookie sales, Christmas toy making, and conferences were just a few of the club's many projects. Mrs. Noma Collins acted as the FHA adviser.

Led by President Jerry Bryant, the Future Farmers of America carried on one of the busiest activity schedules at Delano High. The local Lion's Club conducted a cotton picking contest in the fall, and in November members began raising chickens as a Christmas project.

Numerous fairs and ag shows were entered by FFA members. Jerry Bryant represented the chapter at the national convention in Kansas City in October. Members of the FFA also participated in the Junior Livestock Show at the San Francisco Cow Palace this Spring. Advisers for the group were Mr. Eugene Brassfield, Mr. Ed Maxson, and Mr. Kermit Adams.

Group Activities Make Exciting

Press Club officers are, top, Cozart; lower row, Adviser Wilson, MacKenzie, and President Schlitz.

Serving others in many ways throughout the year, the Junior Red Cross, with Geraldine Perkins as president, led the school with worth-while projects. As its major service, the club sponsored a World Clothing Week Drive on the DHS campus, collecting clothes for orphanages around the world.

Mike Schlitz, president, led the Press Club through a busy slate of activities. With football programs to be edited and sold, meetings and a snow party to attend, and the important Press Banquet to anticipate, Press Club members were a lively group.

The Entertainment Club, composed of students with advanced musical training, made talented students available to entertain various school and community organizations.

Newly formed this year, the Record Listening Club, with Ernie Cabrera as president, was composed of students who enjoy recorded music. The club sponsored Delano High's first all-school dance contest in the winter.

The Explorers Club, a new organization, has gained the notice of the entire community with its original group activities. Beginning the year's trips with a journey to Morro Bay, the boys climbed 600-foot Morro Rock. Later in the year, members took long mountain hikes, and went skin-diving and deep sea fishing.

Promoting rifle marksmanship and gun safety, the 59er Junior Rifle Club met often to sponsor marksmanship contests, rifle matches and safety programs. The club members also are known for being very familiar with all types of small arms.

Delano High School's Cadet Corps added color to home football games as they performed flag raising ceremonies and proudly stood at attention during the national anthem.

Led by officers and senior members, Sergeant First Class Willis, Second Lieutenant Osburn, Second Lieutenant Howard, and Master Sergeant Osburn, the corps practiced complicated exercises and drills and became a fine marching group.

Several group members enjoyed attending cadet summer school, as well as meeting with Cadets from neighboring schools throughout the year. Captain James Hickey was in charge of all Cadet activities.

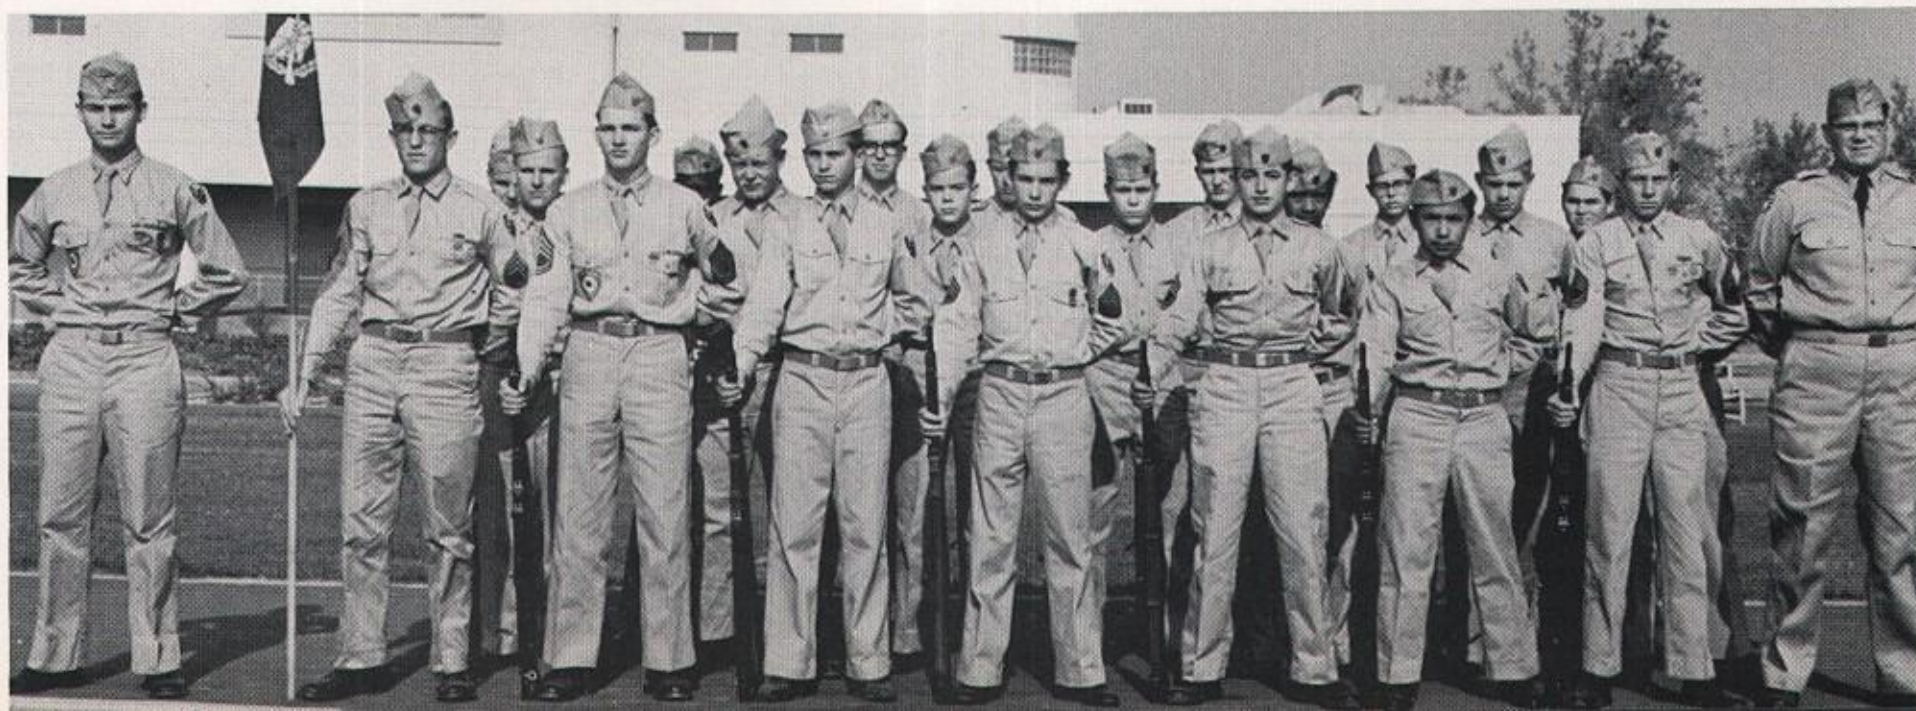

Members of the Explorers Club are, back, Adviser Harvey, Badger, Jones, Garland, Burroughs, Adviser Lamberith; middle, Lanius, Zeigler, Cozart, Weaver, McNabb; front, Richardson, Dyar, Cole, Headrick.

The Delano High School vocal music department, under the direction of Mr. Chester Hayden, enjoyed a successful year of performances.

Attracting a record audience, the music department presented their annual Christmas program with an entirely new format. Featuring singing, narration, and dramatics, the event was staged on December 18 and 19.

A trip to Yosemite highlighted the year for members of Delano High's famed Choir. The group of 57 also sang for a PTA meeting, two school assemblies, an exchange assembly with Corcoran High School, the May 8 Music Festival, and Senior Vesper Services. Director Hayden calls this year's Choir "a superior group of young people, strengthened by individual voice instruction for each student."

Seven members of the Choir won coveted places in the Kern County High School Honor Chorus. These outstanding music students, Deanna Allen, Madeline Downs, Jill Taggart, Jeff Cole, Mike Magill, Arlen Appleford, and Tony Panero performed with the 90-member chorus in Bakersfield's Harvey Auditorium on February 15.

A "Search for Talent" contest, sponsored by the music department received wide notice as the many participating students strived for acclaim and prizes on January 30.

Proving to be a strong vocal group this year, the Girls' Glee Club appeared in the Christmas program, the May Festival, and a school assembly.

A newly formed organization this year, the Mixed Glee Club entertained at the Christmas program and the May Festival. The primary purpose of the group is training students for Choir.

Delano High's fine Tiger Marching Band did itself proud in its many appearances this year. Winning everyone's praise for their thematic half-time shows and special lighted-band numbers, the band also stepped smartly to a new fast cadence at grid games.

The band performed in seven parades, including the invitational All-Western Band Review in Long Beach, the Potato Bowl game, school assemblies, Music Memorial, May Festival, and Spring Concerts, and commencement exercises.

Adding life to proceedings, the miniature pep band tooted at away football games and home basketball games.

Playing for Parent-Teacher Association meetings, the student body and local grammar schools, the Music Memorial, Spring, and May Festival Concerts, and Senior Vesper Services, the Delano High School Orchestra maintained an active schedule. Director of the fine orchestra is Mr. Jack Ritchey.

Seniors Steam Through Active Year

Senior class officers are Day, Pres. Sam Underhill, Garland, Adviser Wilcox, Burns.

"It went by so fast," exclaimed the "old salts," of the class of 1958, "but it was a wonderful voyage while it lasted!"

Under the leadership of President Sam Underhill the seniors carried out a busy schedule of activities. Sam was ably assisted throughout the year by Senior Vice-President Magalene Garland, Secretary. Beverly Burns, Treasurer Janette Day, and the homeroom representatives who comprised the Senior Class Council.

The grey senior sweaters and jackets arrived in time to be shown off at fall football games.

In January the crew began looking ahead to June as they voted in Senior Problems classes for their graduation announcements. Influenced by the first earth satellite, the seniors chose the design called "Sputnik."

Senior Career Day was held in Delano this year as one senior activity followed closely on the heels of another.

"We want to do something different for Senior Ditch Day this year," agreed the seniors who made their plans accordingly, choosing from a wide variety of possible trips.

The annual Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet were termed "the best ever" by enthusiastic upperclassmen.

To the strains of the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" the seniors began to practice marching for the never-to-be forgotten night.

With Vesper Services, the Senior Breakfast, the June 6 graduation ceremony itself, and the following Senior Party, the door closed on the high school days of the class of 1958.

Pretty, Friendly, Neat

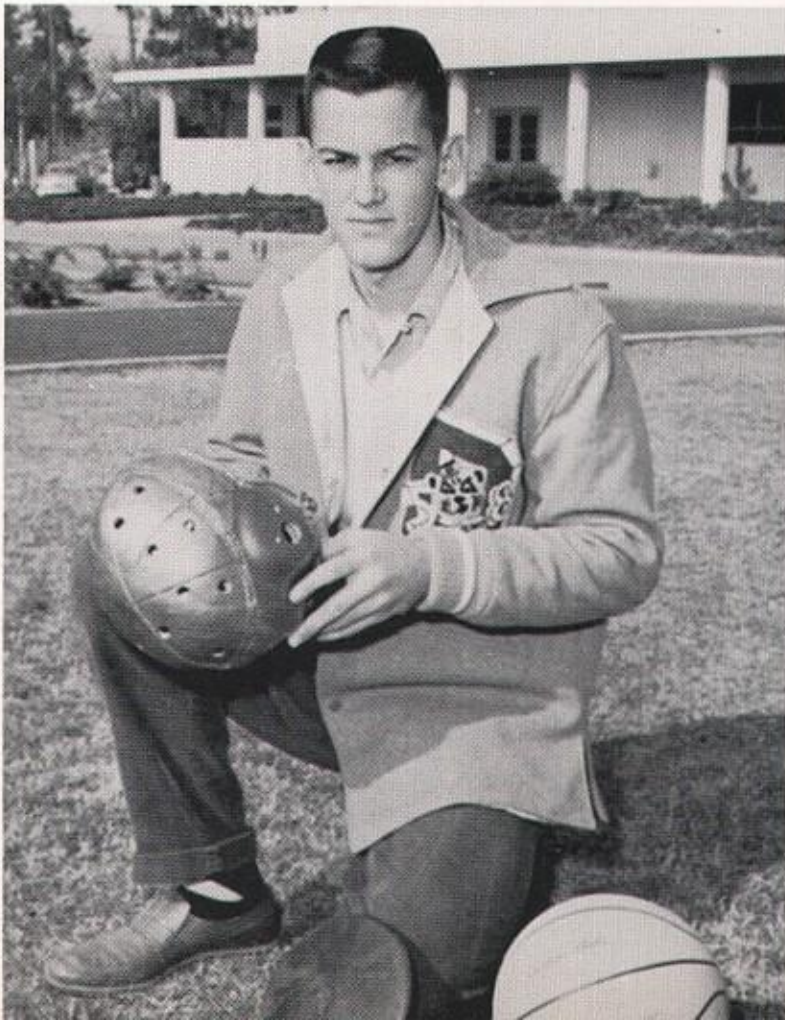

Voted prettiest senior girl, Janette Day has won wide recognition of her beauty and pleasing manner.

Dale Hampton was chosen handsomest senior boy for his good looks and warm smile.

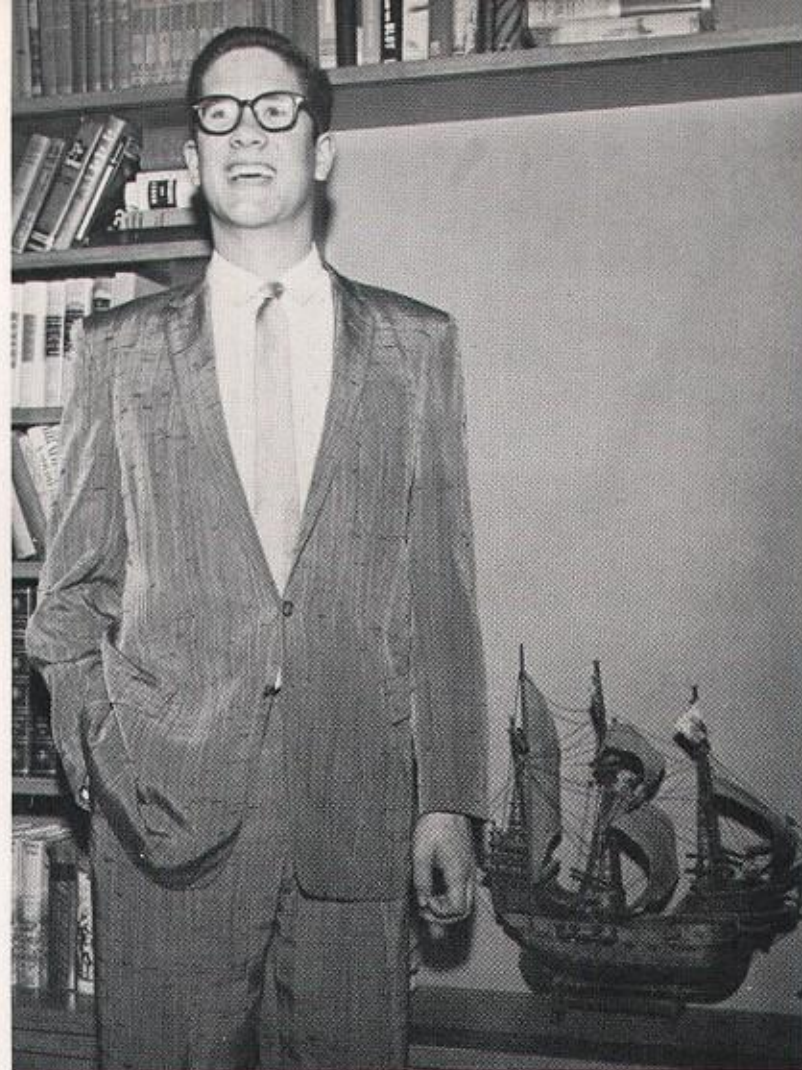

Participating with skill in football, baseball, and track, J. R. Williams was voted most outstanding athlete.

Classmates chose GAA high point winner, Betty Lou Flores, best all-around athlete of senior girls.

Athletic—These Grads

Best dressed senior boy! Tony Panero claims this distinction bestowed by classmates' votes.

Barbara Ruff won nod as best-dressed senior girl for her good taste and flair for clothes.

Named friendliest senior girl, Penny Post delights everyone with her bright smile and happy disposition.

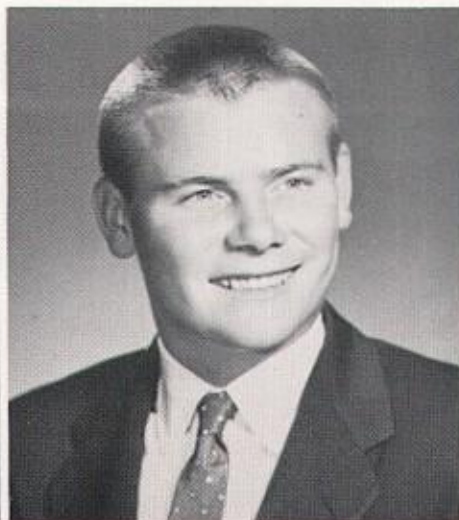

With his wonderful personality, popular Merle Bassett received majority of senior ballots as friendliest boy.

Proud seniors Judy and Bill survey the painting of class numerals on the quad, done one dark night by stealthy seniors.

Seaworthy Juniors End Big Year

Full speed ahead! This was the order given by Bill Martin, The Chief in Command of the class of '59. Assistance in plotting a smooth course was provided by Barney Howard, vice president; Rachel Reyes, secretary; and Bob Howard, treasurer; with help from advisers, Mr. Earl Maxwell, Mr. James Hickey, and Mr. Richard Cottrell.

In early fall the new named upperclassmen proudly displayed new class rings. The shining rings boast a new style with a small tiger head on the crest.

Junior swabies successfully sponsored the Homecoming Dance on November 8, choosing the theme, "My Hero."

In April one of the biggest nights of the year was celebrated, with the juniors playing host to the seniors at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

Late in the year a junior committee met to discuss senior sweater color and design. The committee then submitted to the class three styles and three colors for a final vote.

One of the last big events of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom, was held in May as the command "Cast Anchor" was given, ending an energetic year.

The sophomore class, led by Chief in command John Harrison, and advisers Mr. Al Root and Mr. Waldo Stahl, had a very active and successful year.

Helping to organize the many varied and interesting activities were Max Souder, vice-president; Marica Bannister, secretary; and Linda John, treasurer.

Early in February there was a large stir of excitement over the selection of junior rings for the class of 1960, symbolizing their upper-classman status.

As a money making project, the swabies sponsored a class party and fun night on February 28, a tremendous success.

Late in the spring the sophomores sponsored a swimming party which was termed by all a "dripping success."

Plebes Begin DHS Career

Left, Kathy Bennett was voted most outstanding freshman girl by classmates. Right, Don Williams, a top-notch boy in all fields, won nod as most outstanding freshman boy.

Beginning eagerly on Freshman Day, September 4, Delano High's class of 1961 proceeded to earn the notice and respect of other classes for their many activities.

When thoroughly oriented with the aid of special assemblies, counseling, the new student handbook, and regular Freshmen Orientation classes, the lively frosh set out to fill their high school years with fun and study. As their first social event of the year, the freshmen planned and sponsored an all-freshman dance held in the cafeteria on December 10.

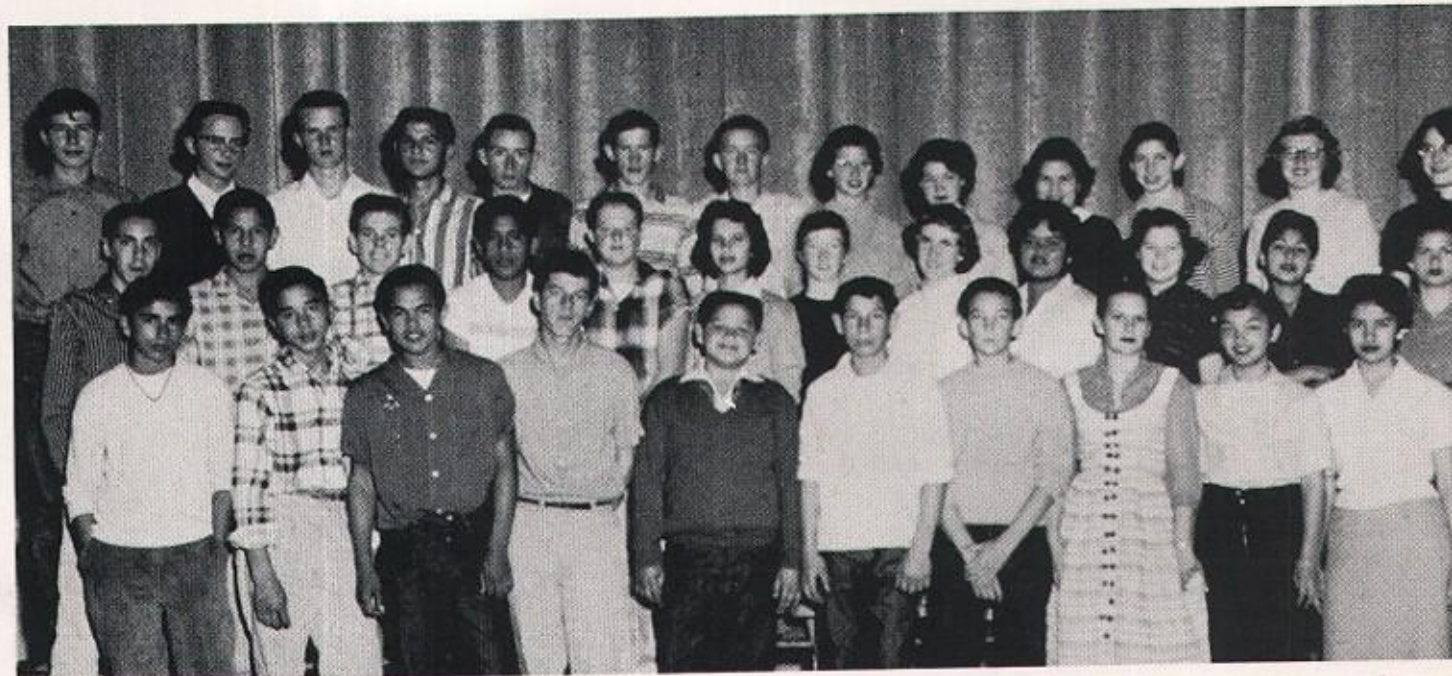

Freshmen returned an earlier favor by playing hosts to sophomores at a freshman-sophomore dance in April. Next on the social calendar for the large class was the freshman swim party in the D.H.S. pool (mostly underwater!) in May.

Efficiently leading the freshman class through the year was President Donald Williams. Other officers included Henry Rodriguez, vice-president; Pat Langston, secretary; and Mary Ann Stone, treasurer. Class advisers were Mr. Bruce Harvey and Mr. Eugene Beck.

Setting records in many fields, the frosh bought more student body cards, more yearbooks, and more identification pictures. Freshmen have more representatives in student council; and more of them showed up for DEL-ANO pictures than any other class. With a peak enrollment of 410, freshmen also gained recognition for their large number. Many individual freshmen are known on campus for their athletic, music, and scholastic accomplishments.

The class of 1961 is a group to watch.

Sink Early Season Foes

Coach Earl Maxell's Delano Tigers came into the home stretch only four points away from the league leadership, losing three games by missing the vital conversion points. The 1957 Tigers finished the grid season with a 4-5 record.

In the opener the Tigers ended the Tulare three-year jinx as they edged the Redskins 14-13. Ruben Hill paced the Tigers with a 90-yard TD gallop in the third period. Again the high spirited Tigers went on their winning way as they toured Clovis 20-6. After battling the Porterville Panthers on even terms for three periods the Tigers broke the deadlock in the last quarter in a spectacular 13-yard pass-play from Rubuen Rodriguez to Jim Hyatt. The roof caved in as the home town favorites lost their first game to Mt. Whitney 19-13. Rubuen Hill, with the aid of Richard Williams passed 49 yards for a Tiger TD. Capitalizing on Arvin fumbles and on inept Arvin defense, the Tigers romped to an easy 48-19 victory in the first league game.

The following game the Tigers were dumped by Taft 14-13 as the morale seemed to falter. The Bakersfield Drillers moved too much for the Tigers as they won 44-6. Delano scored three TDs in the second half but not the extra's, letting North High by with a 21-18 victory. In the last game of the year the Tigers were beaten 39-26 as Ruben Hill of the Tigers gave the Tiger fellows a 98-yard return for the longest return run in the valley by a high school player.

The brilliant offensive Tiger attack was directed from the T-formation. Halfback Ruben Hill and Richard Williams did most of the running for the Tigers. Hill ran for 10 touchdowns, ran two extra points, and caught one TD pass to lead the Tigers with 68 points. The Tigers pint-sized quarterback, Rubuen Rodriguez, used his passing attack aided by Angel Diaz and Jim Hyatt. Diaz scored 34 points, all on passes from Rodriguez. Williams and Hyatt each scored 19 points for the Tigers. Tackle J. R. Williams led the team on defensive paly with 90 tackles for the season. Other standouts on defense were Paul Franklin, Merle Bassett, C. V. Juday, and Ed Morton.

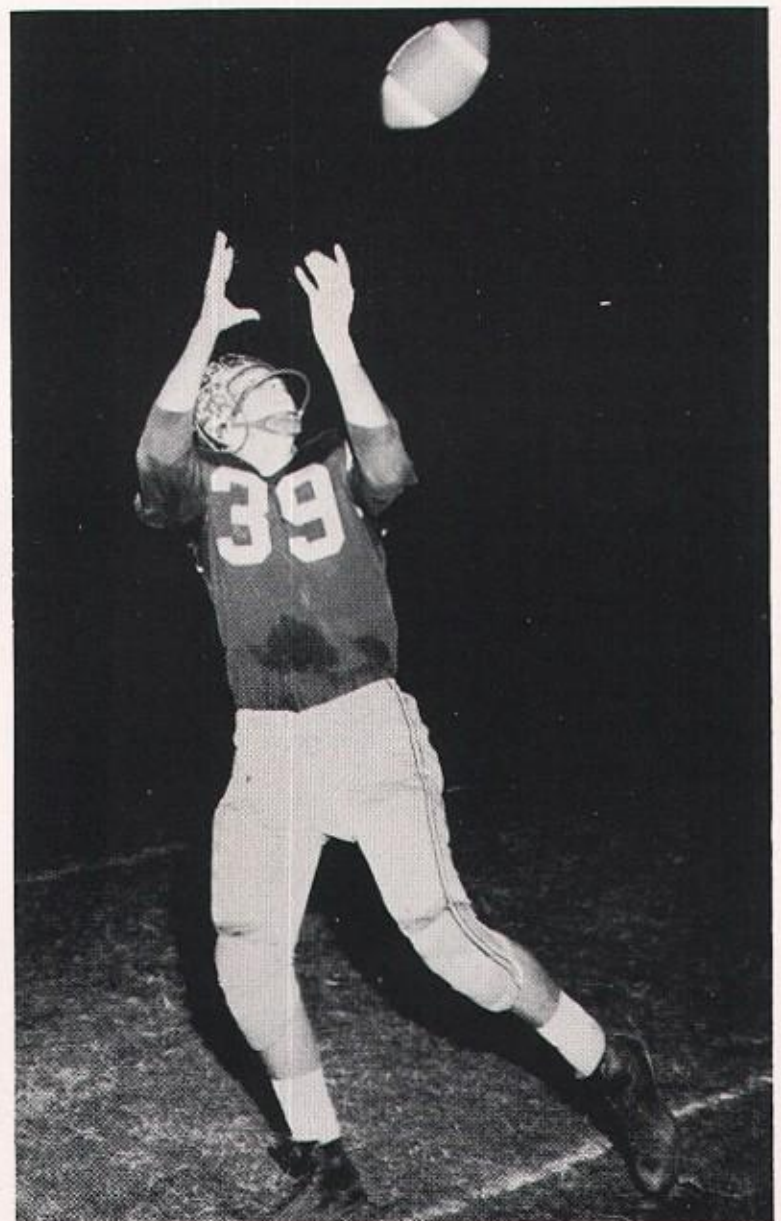

The Junior Tigers coached by Mr. Nathan Johnson, had an unlucky season as they finished with a 0-4-1 record. Games with Kern Valley and North High were canceled because many players were put out of action by Asiatic flu.

The JV's lost to Porterville 8-0, and then lost to North High. The junior Tigers tied EB, 6-6, but were submerged by Bakersfield, 26-0. In the last game of the season, the JV's lost to Porterville, 13-6.

Mr. Earl Maxwell was the Tiger mentor for the year. Assisting him were Mr. Nathan Johnson, Mr. Gene Beck, and Mr. James Kelley.

Tigers in Rough Seas, Drop Five Games

Below, Tiger end James Hyatt gathers a Rodriguez pass for a TD in the North High contest.

Above, Richard Williams breaks into the open as Ronald Brock leads the play in the Arvin game.

Right, Carol Bradley, Head Cheerleader, Donna Silva, and Pat Wesson led the season's varsity yells.

Sophomore and junior apprentice yell leaders include Sugie Rado-vich, Deanna Allen, Barbara Johnes, and Elizabeth Burum.

Finishing the 1957 football season with six wins and three losses, the Delano High Bengals, under the leadership of Coaches Jay Yarbrough and Ralph Allen, shared first-place honors with East Bakersfield and North High.

With a surging surface attack, the Bengals steamed over the Tulare Papooses 20-7 in the season opener. Paced by Booker Parker and Louis Lucas, who scored two TD's and an extra, the Bengals dominated the whole game.

Again using a powerful surface push, the Bengals trounced Clovis 36-0. Halfback Booker Parker racked up a total of 195 yards as the Bengals totaled 281 yards on the ground.

In their first defeat of the season the Bengals lost because of a missed extra point, letting the Porterville Cubs win 7-6. The Delano TD was shipped to pay dirt by Frank Caraveo on a pass interception.

Taking the defeat in stride, the Bengals showed a powerful and explosive offense, defeating the Mt. Whitney Voodoos 26-14. Jimmy Battles, Louis Lucas, Booker Parker, and Pete Duran paced the Bengals to their third victory of the season.

Taft and Arvin fell into the oncoming tide of the Bengals. Delano beat Arvin 25-7 and then plowed under Taft 39-12.

With a great show of alertness and offensive strength before the Homecoming crowd of Delano fans, the Bengals played their final home game and beat North High of Bakersfield 19-14. William Richards, Jimmy Battles and Booker Parker manned the bridge for the Bengal win.

A showdown in the South Yosemite league was obvious as the Delano High Bengals were sideswiped by the East Bakersfield Daggers 33-15.

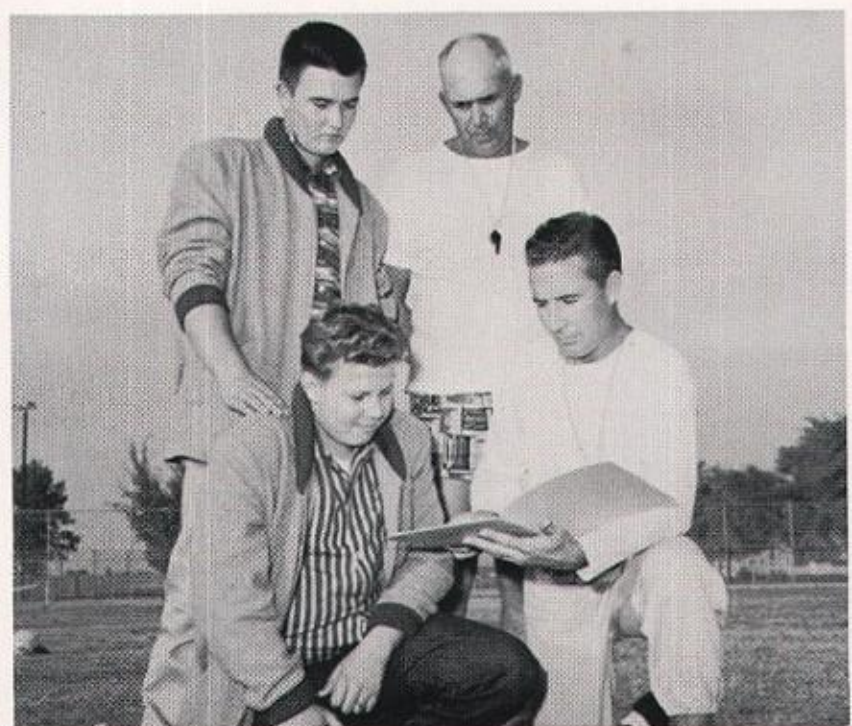

The Bengals ran off a multiple offense consisting of a straight T formation and an unbalanced line, single-wing formation. Leading the team throughout the year were Jerry Williamson, Jim Menagh, Dick Grogan and Bob Mendoza.

Cross Country Teams Do Well

Showing depth and reserve strength, the Delano Harriers triumphed in the A and C classes and the B's copped fourth in the South Yosemite League. The varsity then went on to capture second in the Valley finals behind Fresno High and qualified for the state meet.

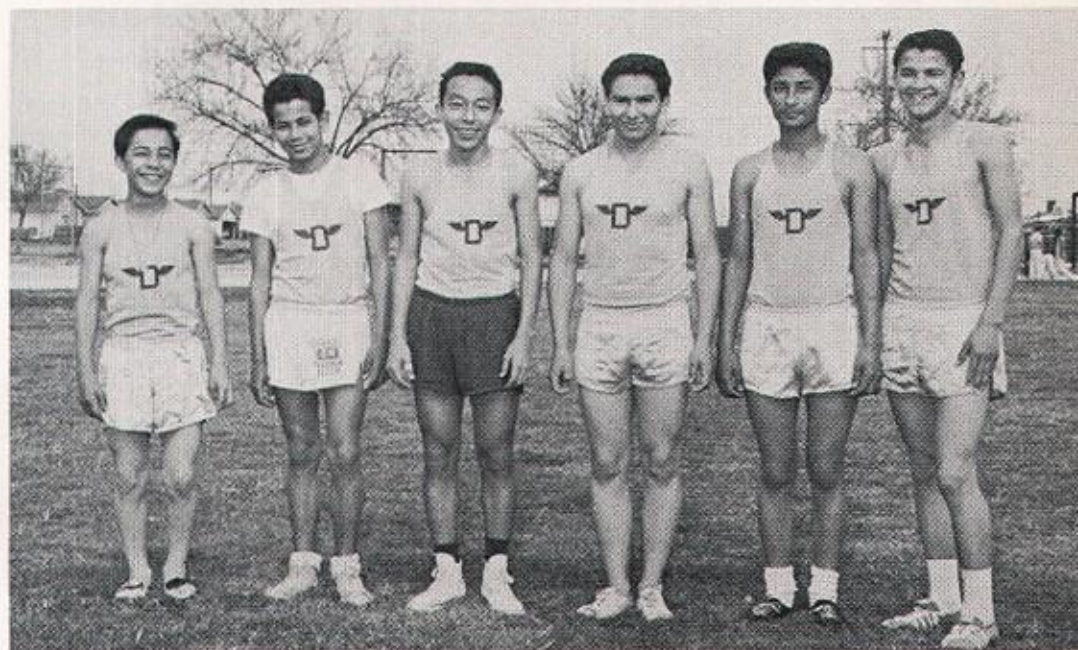

Coach Dan Tivolacci's cross country team won the first meet at Bakersfield as Tony Ramos, team captain, captured third in the A class.

In the Southern Yosemite League Championship, the Delano A's defeated all comers as they tallied 26 points, Wasco 60, Bakersfield 61, and East Bakersfield 129. David Smith, with a burst of speed in the stretch, placed second. Trujillo copped fourth; Marquez, fifth; Ramos, sixth; Proctor, ninth.

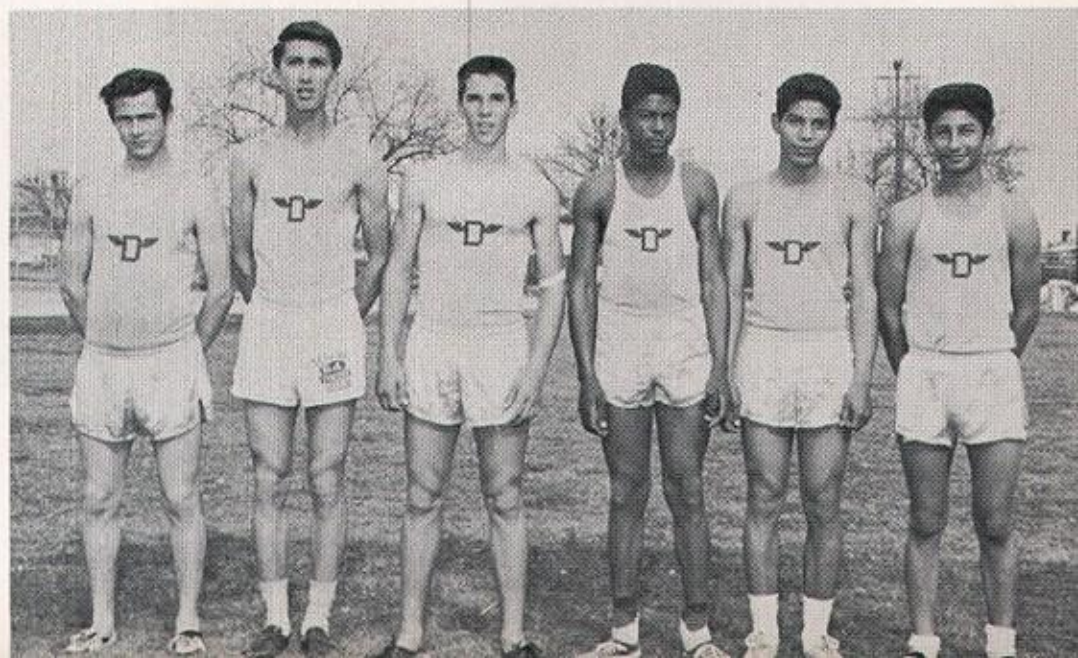

The B's were fourth behind Bakersfield, East Bakersfield, and Wasco. Ken Washman, B captain, copped thirteenth. The C's took first as Martinez, Gonzales, and Arreola placed the win.

As the Roosevelt High School conducted the Lake Millerton meet, Tony Ramos placed seventh and the A's captured fourth. Fresno had 26; Merced, 93; Bullard of Fresno, 120; Delano, 140; Bakersfield, 150; with Sanger, Wasco, Sierra Union, Porterville, Roosevelt and Taft following.

Bailey, Risenhoover, Brown, Rosales, and Lewis also competed during the year.

Coming through when the chips were down, Coach Gene Daniels' Delano High Tigers proved themselves championship stuff as they tied for the South Yosemite League title.

The co-champs upset prime foes, Bakersfield, twice after the loss of John Venerable, star center and All-American last year. Delano was considered an easy choice for the title until Venerable's early-season leg injury put him out of commission, and forced the other Tigers to show tremendous teamwork, spirit, and last-minute drive to turn the tide.

Mike Pagua and Angel Diaz shared the team spotlight, along with J. R. Williams, Bob Johnson, Fred Smith, Dubose Stephens, Paul Franklin, David Lopez, Daryl Gleed, Jerry Hill, Richard Sandrini, and Lyndell Lawson.

Diaz came out second high-scorer, and Pagua out-rebounded all league opponents.

Finishing with a 7-2 league record, the Delano Bengals emerged in second place of the Southern Yosemite League. Ruben Rodriguez who led the Bengals in scoring by playing consistently good ball throughout the season, was followed by Ron Suggs and Jimmy Battles. Efften Jones and Kenney Lewis topped the team in rebounding as Jones gathered 108 rebounds to lead the league. The Bengals finished the SYL race sporting a 18-2 record.

Ray Maples led the junior-varsity in the high scorers department. Ernest Cabrera, C. V. Juday, and Jerry Young helped out Coach Dave Kelley's squad as the team won six and lost 12. The Delano High Kittens started out with a tremendous splurge of winning combinations as they won nine out of their first 10 games. The bottom then dropped out as the Kittens won four and lost six in their league contests.

Tommy Edwards, Henry Rodriguez, Jake Yunker, Max Souder, and David Wolfe led the Kitten scoring.

New Wrestlers Pin Few Foes

New to the Delano High Sports program, the wrestling team, under the supervision of Coach Ralph Allen, had a 1-9 season record.

Delano met six teams in the valley—Hanford twice, Mt. Whitney twice, Kingsburg twice, Redwood, Corcoran, and Redwood once.

Three boys did very well for the first year of competition. Allan Franks in the 165 pound class won five and lost five; Danny Biggins in the 103 pound class also won five and lost five; and Charles Bowen in the unlimited class won four, lost three, and had one draw. Next year Coach Allen expects Al Munoz, Robert Gutterez, and John Cozart to do well in their classes.

The new scoring rules state that a team gets five points for each opponent pinned and three points for every decision. The team with the most points after all matches are completed is the winner.

Left, apprentice song leaders and yell leaders include Laurie Sands, Shirley Dawson, Kathy Bennett and Sandra Cabrera.

All Boys in Sports Program

Members of the championship second periods boys' strip football team are, back row, Harper, Beyer and Captain Wesir. In the front row are Velderrain, Wiseman, Bryant, Gill, Glovens and Ortiz. Second period beat third period 6-0 for the championship.

Robert Peevyhouse handles all of the P. E. laundry in the laundry room by the swimming pool.

Trainer Gus Metz works on a pulled muscle as he tries to keep the Delano High athletes in top shape.

As before, the regular boys' physical education class has had a complete sports decathlon for boys not playing on school teams. Events included football passing for accuracy and kick for distance, while the second quarter saw boys compete in a basketball dribble to the basket for a lay up. Points were tallied on times and accuracy.

Third quarter contests are baseball throw for accuracy and circling bases for time. In the fourth quarter shot put, broad jump, and swimming time trials are held. Ron Ward, senior, leads in total points as the D.H.S. DEL ANO goes to press.

Each P.E. class also enters a team in the intramural football, basketball, and baseball tournaments.

DHS Swimmers Sink

Tigershark mainstays Scott Ellsworth, Tony Panero, Mike Johnson, Truman Chase, Danny Geivet, and Leonard Hall showed up well in practice tilts as they won most pre-season matches. Leonard Hall set a new 150-meter individual medley record against Mt. Whitney with a speedy 1:55.2 clocking at the Delano pool.

The undefeated Mermaids have done exceedingly well with Sandra Perelli-Minetti, Irene LaVallee, and Mary Ann Stone as consistent winners.

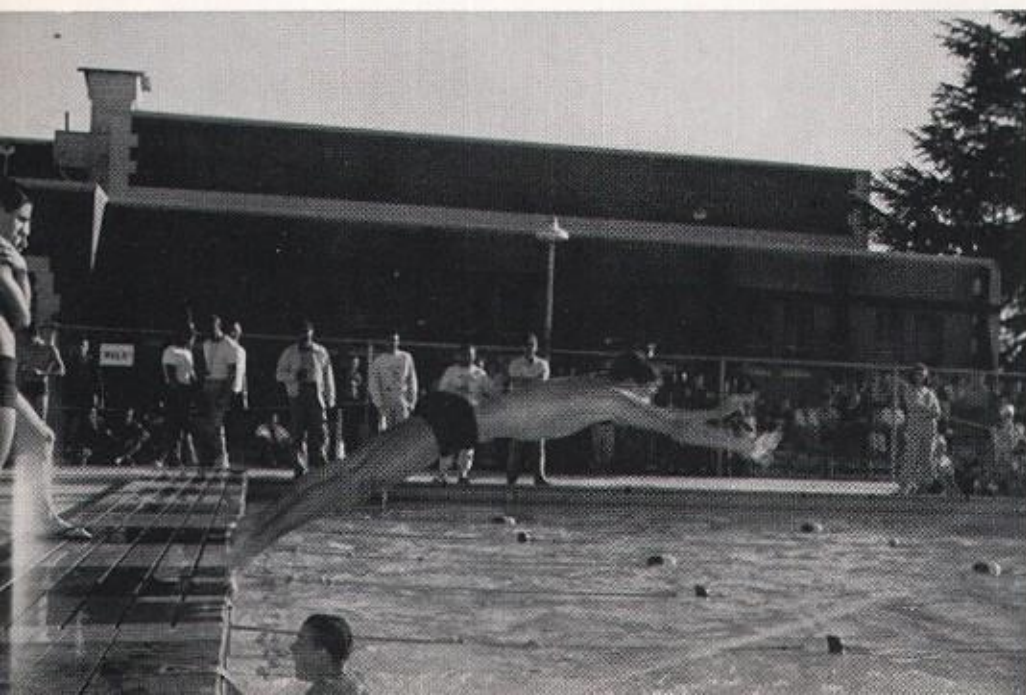

Varsity swimmers defeated Mt. Whitney twice, 50-26 and 50-37, following these wins with a similar submersion of Shafter 45-39. The Tigersharks copped a second in the 500-yard shuttle relay in the Bakersfield Relays.

B class Barracudas were defeated by Mt. Whitney 44-33 and 47-38, but beat Shafter 53-33. The B's took the eight-man 400-yard sprint relays at the Relays.

Delano's girl swimmers defeated Mt. Whitney 44-33, 40-28, and 39-38, then topped Shafter 30-28. The Mermaids copped two of the four events at the Relays in the 200-yard medley relay and the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Tigers Win 10 in

Coach Ray Frederick's varsity baseball nine was sporting an 11-1 record for the year at Del-Ano press time.

Eliminated early from the Fresno Tournament, the Tigers downed Edison 9-4, but lost to Roosevelt 22-9 in the first day of play. In practice tilts the locals swept twin bills from Tulare 3-2, 6-4 and Redwood 5-0, 7-6. For the opening Southern Yosemite League game, the Tigers beat North High of Bakersfield 5-0.

Coach Frederick states that there are no individual stand-outs on the team this year. The team is well-balanced with many of the players able to play more than one position. In the first 11 ball games Coach Frederick did not use the same line-up twice.

Handling most of the mound duties have been Pat Shaffer, Lorenzo Morales, and C. V. Juday. Bennie Nava did the catching. First sacker John Venerable broke his leg in basketball, so Paul Franklin was shifted to the spot, while Paul Rodriquez filled in at third. Other infielders were Ruben Rodriquez, second base; Larry Hyatt, shortstop; and Jerry Hill, utility man. Playing the outfield were James Hyatt, Cris Parsons, Bob Johnson, and Frank Caraveo.

Last season's finish found the Tigers with a 13-2 record and the SYL championship. They lost to Fresno in the Valley playoffs with a 9-1 score.

At press time this year the local junior varsity baseball squad had a 2-0 league record and had lost only two games all season.

Coach Ed DeFraga's JV nine opened the league season by downing North High, and held off a ninth inning rally to beat East Bakersfield by a score of 10-8. They have also beaten Redwood two out of three games, Porterville, Alpaugh, and Tulare.

The leading hitters for the JV's early in the season were David Flores, Ronald Brock, Willie Pickering and Kenny Lewis. Doing most of the pitching were Preston Sanchez, Jim Moore, David Okasaki, Luciano Castro, and James Nunes. Other starters were Max Souder, Ken Grimes, Ray Maples, and Jim Menaugh.

Last season Coach DeFraga's junior Tigers won the SYL championship.

Coach Gene Beck's freshman nine had a 1-1 league record for the 1958 season at press time along with an overall record of 7-3.

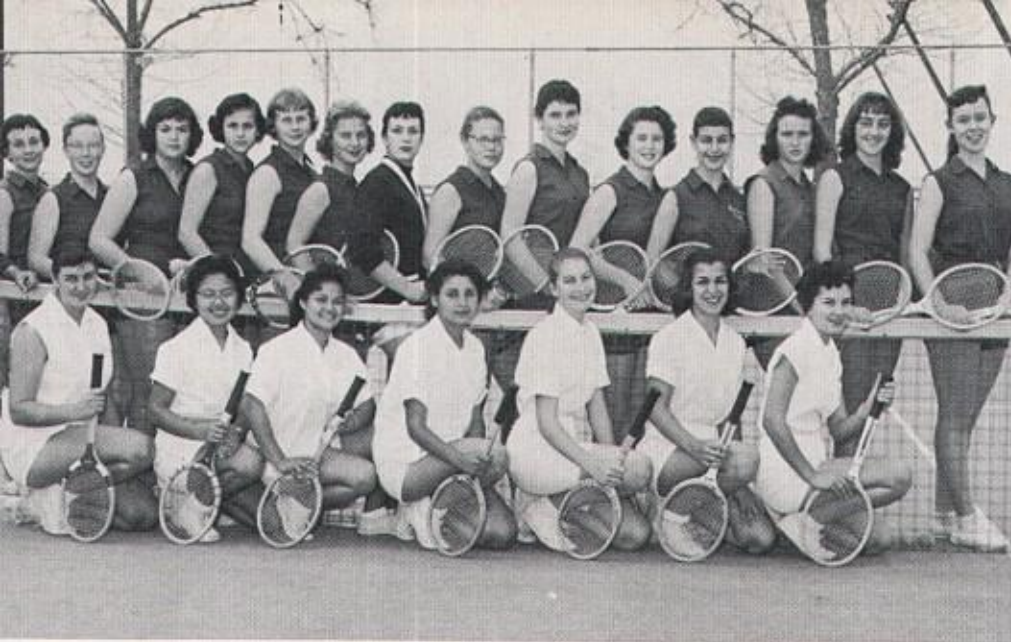

In the opening league game the frosh lost to North High, but came back the next day to down the East High Frosh by a score of 3-2. They also took wins over Porterville, Tulare, and Redwood twice.

Regulars for the freshman team were Robert Lee, catcher; Bill Wells, first base; Henry Rodriguez, second base; Jack Franklin, third base, and Larry Argel, shortstop. In the outfield were Danny Katano, Tony Bravo, and Johnny Lopez.

The ace hurler was Mike Carrillo, with Donald Brown, Randy Swanson, and Donald Williams also pitching.

Racqueteters Vie for Title

The Delano High girls' tennis squad was undefeated in league play until press time, while the boys were 0-2 in league competition.

The girls, under the direction of Miss Barbara Goemer, won their first league meeting by downing East Bakersfield 3-2. They also beat North High 3-2.

Barbara LaRosa and Beverly Hunter played first and second singles. Barbara Jones and Mary McClure played first doubles.

Coach Jay Yarbrough's squad won five practice meets early in the season. They lost to North High and EB by identical scores of 5-0 in league play.

Wesley Hondo had a string of five wins in practice meets as first singles player. Playing second singles for the boys was David Smith. In first doubles were Ted King and John Gonzales.

Opening their seasons on the successful side were Delano High track teams as they won a three-way meet. Varsity cindermen outscored Mt. Whitney 67-45 and North High of Bakersfield 70-40. In B class competition the Bengals defeated Whitney 78-33 and North 62-50; while the Kittens trod on Whitney 86-8 and North 19-16.

Outstanding performers for the Tiger team were J. R. Williams, who won the discus and shot-put contests, and Ronald Suggs, crack dash man. Jimmy Battles paced the B's by winning both hurdles and high jump. John Harris won the 75-yard dash and the low hurdles.

Delano was defeated by Bakersfield High teams on the local field, losing $66\frac{1}{2}$ - $44\frac{1}{2}$ in the A's, 92-11 in the B's and 86-18 in the C class. Track ace Ruben Hill showed tremendous versatility as he swept three events. Hill won the 100 and 200-yard dashes and leaped to win the broad jump. Leonard Brown took the 440-yard run to assist in the scoring. Delano's top-notch 880-yard relay team, consisting of Ronald Suggs, Bill Jones, Leonard Brown, and Ruben Hill, defeated Bakersfield with a 1:31.8 clocking. John White won the high jump for the C's, and Doug Fox copped pole vault honors.

Other outstanding Tiger tracksters are Mike Pagua in the high jump and hurdles and Jerry Porter in the hurdles and sprints.

Gals Play Full Program

The number one girls' organization on the Delano High campus is the Girls' Athletic Association. Serving as the 1958 officers were Betty Flores, president; Ann Barrett, vice-president; and Nita Rice, secretary-treasurer.

In addition to supervising an athletic program for girls, Mrs. Carolyn Sorensen, adviser, always helps in promoting better understanding and sportsmanship.

The GAA'ers sponsored the annual All-Sports Dance given in honor of all school teams.

Approximately 150 girls take part in various sports every Monday and Wednesday. After many tournaments and play-offs winning teams and captains are selected. Basketball, volleyball, tennis, swimming, and softball are a few of the activities offered.

For every day a GAA'er dresses for team-participation she receives three points. When a girl reaches 100 points she receives a membership card. After earning a total of 200 points she may become a member of Block D, at 300 points she is entitled to a sweater, 400 points, her pin, and 500 points, her guard.

The girls always look forward to the annual GAA Banquet held May 6, that topped off the program for the year. Membership cards, Block D pins and guards were given away at the banquet.

the finest in Texaco products for cars and tractors along with efficient, friendly service, leaving the customers completely satisfied with their lubricating materials.

Big Wheels . . .
Are these around the DELANO
EARLIMART PO-TATO GROWERS
SHED. Mike; Rex
Vosburg, manager;
and Kay Franklin,
secretary; each have a hand in the growing, packing, and shipping of the valley's top quality potatoes.

DELANO EARLIMART POTATO GROWERS
SEED — FERTILIZER — INSECTICIDES

"We are hoping . . .
to serve you as we have served your parents for so many years," says Marlene McMillan as she greet Mike and Eddie at the door of PETERSON & TREECE, 130
High Street. Smart farmers rely on this establishment's quick, efficient service.

"Anything and everything . . .
can be found at TAKAKI PHAR-MACY, 1031 Dover Place," exclaim
Dawn and Judy as they merrily trod through the store with their DHS tigers. Items ranging from quality drugs to hilarious Hi Brow cards are offered at Takaki's.

"We know where to go . . .

for the best food in town," say Paul and Ruben. They both know that not only delicious Spanish and American food is served at THE LANTERN, located on High Street, but almost equally important is the relaxing atmosphere and the friendly service.

Undecided? . . .

Whether you, like Bennett, need that extra touch to complete your summer ensemble or whether you need more formal attire, you may rely on MORRIS' DEPARTMENT STORE'S fine selection of merchandise and good taste to help you satisfy your clothing needs.

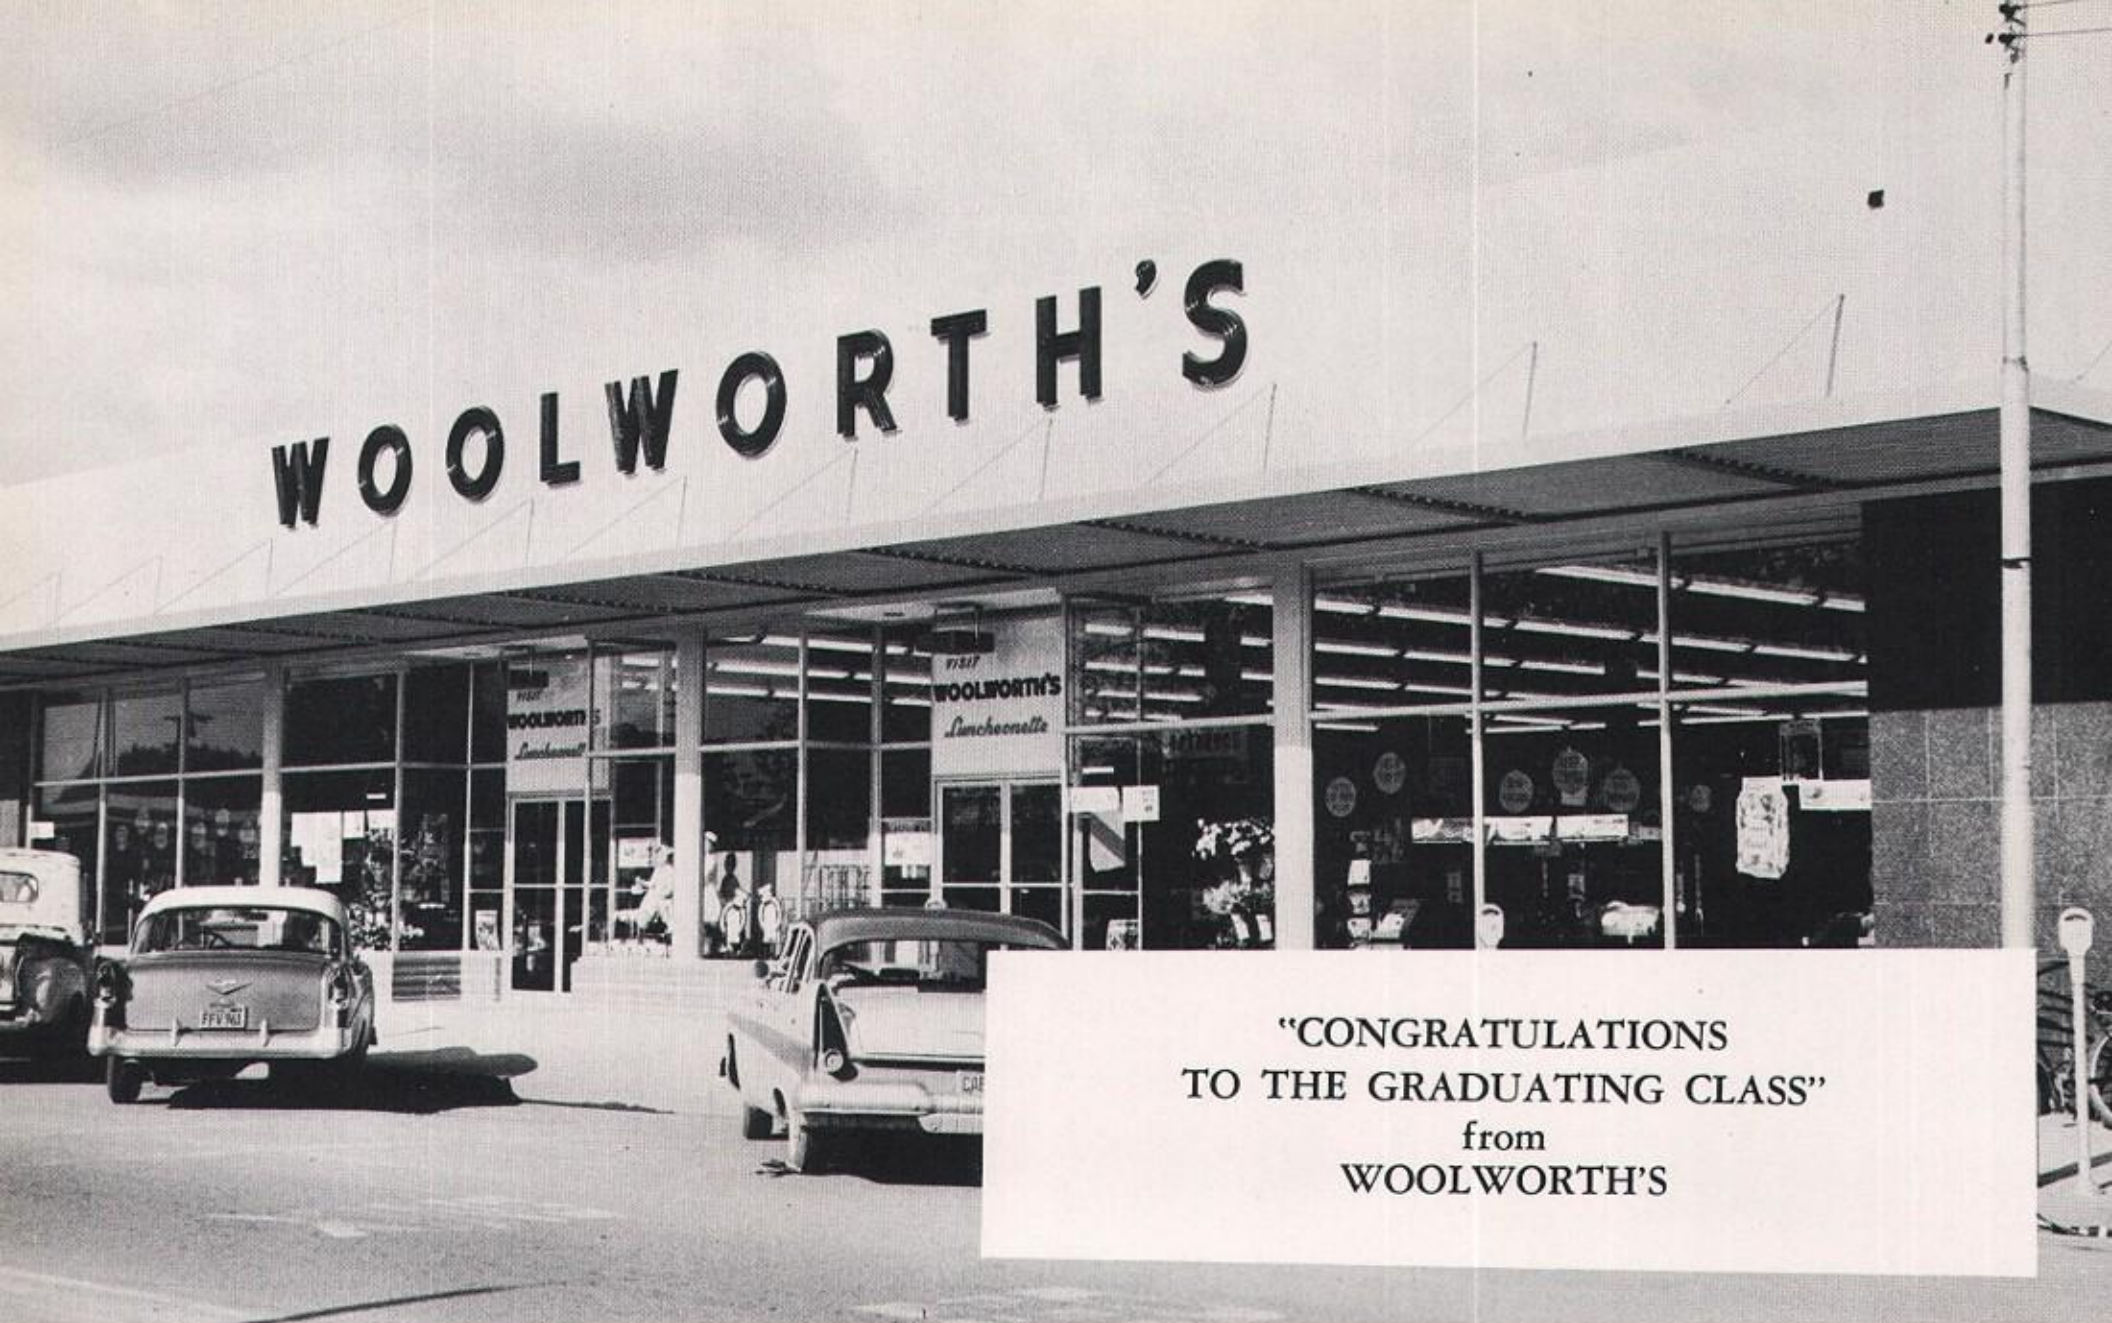

"We are here to serve you" . . .
 say the people who work at JOHN JILES TEXACO STATION. The finest in Texaco products to keep that car of yours humming can be found here along with the fastest service in town. Jiles is located on the corner of Madison and Cecil.

State
 market

Located on . . .
 the corner of Cecil and Lexington is one of Delano's most attractive and leading markets. Yes, it is the STATE MARKET of which we speak. State Market is equipped to satisfy the busy housewife's every need.

State MARKET

Gliding wearily into home port, the D.H.S. Del-Ano ends her sometimes turbulent, most times smooth, 1957-58 voyage.

Del-Ano staff members hope they have succeeded in capturing the really seaworthy spirit of Delano High students, as well as covering their activities.

The staff is grateful to the many who have given help in the production of this book. Students, faculty and administration all gave invaluable aid.

Very special thanks go to Mr. Jack Laughlin, of Mirrographic Yearbooks, Glendale; Mr. Nick Dailey, Dailey's Studio, Delano; Mr. Bill Lurton, S. K. Smith Company, Los Angeles, and our extra-nice advertisers.
